The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 7. to Monday November 11. 1706.

Moſcow, October 6. N. S.

THere has lately been an Inſurrection at Aſtracan, but it was ſoon ſuppreſſed by a Body of Forces ſent thither for that purpoſe, which are ſince returned, and paſſed lately by this Place in their March towards Petersbourg, having with them about 4000 of the Rebels, who have been pardoned, upon Condition they ſhould enter into the Service; but 300 of the Ringleaders are come hither in Cuſtody, in order to their being brought to Condign Puniſhment. The 19th of the laſt Month the Czar arrived at Petersbourg, where he intends to continue two or three Months, and then to return hither.

From the Duke of Savoy's Camp before Picighittone, October 22. The Siege here is vigorouſly carried on: Our Batteries are finiſhed, and our Trenches advanced cloſe to the Paliſadoes; and we hope to be Maſters of the Place in a ſhort time; after which it is believed the Duke of Savoy will join Prince Eugene, in order to reduce the Caſtle of Tortona, and ſuch other Places in theſe Parts as are ſtill in the Enemy's Poſſeſſion. We have received an Account, That the Detachment under Prince Eugene has taken Alexandria; and that another Body of the Confederate Troops has reduced the Fort Fuentes, a ſtrong Poſt on the Lake di Como, that gave the Enemy a Communication with the Country of the Griſons; which being now entirely cut off, the French Forces under General Medavi cannot receive any Money or other Supplies by any other way than by Genoa, and that with much Difficulty, by reaſon of our being Maſters of Alexandria. His Royal Highneſs has already given Directions for recruiting his Forces, in order to which above 2000 Men are already raiſed. We hear the Enemy have lately ſent a Reinforcement from Provence to the Gariſon of Final.

Genoa, October 24. The Newcaſtle Man of War, Captain Cutter Commander, arrived here the 18th Inſtant from Leghorne, being appointed to carry Mr. Methuen, Her Majeſty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Portugal, with his Retinue, to Lisbon, who accordingly went on board her, and the 20th ſhe put to Sea with a fair Wind. The blowing up of the Magazine at Alexandria has done a great deal of Miſchief to that Town, having deſtroyed many Houſes, and killed a great Number of Perſons. The reducing of that Place and Tortona by the Allies will cut off the Communication which the French had by Sea and thro' the Territories of this Republick with the Milaneſe.

Venice, October 29. Prince Herculani, the Emperor's Ambaſſador here, has received an Expreſs from the Duke of Savoy's Camp before Picighittone, with Advice, That the Confederate Troops having on the 23d Inſtant taken the Counterſcarp of that Place, the Gariſon ſurrendred the 26th. There is alſo an Account, That Prince Eugene poſſeſſed himſelf of Alexandria the 21ſt; and that his Highneſs found in the Place Fifty Pieces of Cannon, and great Quantities of all ſorts of Stores and Ammunition. A Body of German Horſe is marched from the Veroneſe towards Modena, in order to join the Imperial Troops under General Wetzel, who has made the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for the Siege of that Place; and by our next Letters from thence we expect to hear of his having broken Ground before it; in order to which he has ſecured a Poſt called St. Cattardo, which commands the Town, and will much contribute towards its being reduced. The Imperial Magazines of Proviſions and Ammunition that were laid up at Mezzola, Badia, and other neighbouring Towns, are ſent up the Po towards the Milaneſe. General Medavi is with a Body of Troops between the lower part of the Oglio and the Cremoneſe, and has fortified ſeveral Poſts in the Dutchy of Mantua. General Delphino, who commands the Forces of this State, has poſted a Body of them along the River Mincio, towards Borghetto and Valenza, for the better Security of our Frontiers on that ſide.

Milan, November 2. The Gariſon of Picighittone ſurrendred the 26th paſt, the French Troops which were in it being permitted to retire to Cremona, and the remainder, conſiſting of Spaniards, Swiſs and Italians, entred into the Service of the Allies. The Duke of Savoy is ſince come with the Forces employed in that Siege to Pavia, where he has had a Conference with Prince Eugene; and it is ſaid, they have reſolved in the next place to attack Cazal and Valenza. General Colmenero, who commanded at Alexandria, is brought hither, being made Priſoner with his Gariſon, except the French, who were ſuffered to retire to Suza, leaving their Arms behind them. The Caſtles of Aſti and Seravalla have alſo ſurrendred to the Confederates.

Vienna, November 3. Count Wratiſlaw, whom the Emperor had ſent to the King of Sweden upon his coming into Saxony, returned from thence the 30th paſt. They write from Hungary, That General Staremberg was marching to Leopolſtad, to ſupply that Place with Proviſions. Te Deum was ſung here laſt Sunday for the Progreſſes of the Confederate Arms in Italy.

Breſlaw, Nov. 3. On the 29th paſt the King of Poland attacked near Kaliſh the Body of Troops commanded by General Mardevelt, which conſiſted of 8 Swediſh Regiments, two Battalions of French and other Foreigners, and about 15000 Poles, under the Command of the Palatine of Kiow: The Fight began at two in the afternoon, and in the Beginning the Swedes had ſome Advantage over the Muſcovites in the King's Army, and had taken ſome Pieces of Cannon from them; but after a Diſpute of 3 Hours, they were defeated, and the King of Poland afterwards took the Town of Kaliſh. It is ſaid his Majeſty's Army conſiſted of 5000 Saxon Horſe, 9000 Muſcovite Dragoons, and about 7000 Poles, commanded by the Crown-General.

Bern, Nov. 3. Letters from Piedmont give an Account, That Prince Eugene having taken Alexandria, was marched to Valenza, and had actually begun the Siege of that Place; and that Picighittone, a ſtrong Poſt on the Adda, has ſurrendred to the Duke of Savoy upon Articles. They write from Lyons, That the French have wholly laid aſide the Deſign of returning into Piedmont.

Hanover, Nov. 12. The Ceremony of the Prince Royal of Pruſſia's Marriage with the Princeſs of Hanover will be celebrated the 14th Inſtant, Lieutenant-General Fink, being appointed his Royal Highneſs's Proxy, is lately come from Berlin for that purpoſe; and the 17th her Royal Highneſs will ſet out from hence for that Court. Letters from Saxony give an Account, That the King of Sweden intended to return from thence with a Body of his Troops into Poland.

Paris, Nov. 9. A Declaration has lately been publiſhed, containing ſome new Regulations concerning the Bills that have for ſome time been current here in Payments, by which the Court hoped to have remedied in ſome meaſure the Prejudice this Paper Credit has done to our Trade; but it has on the contrary leſſened their Value, and occaſioned great murmuring. It being found impracticable to put the Duke of Orleans's Army into a Condition to attempt the returning into Piedmont this Campaign, that Deſign is laid aſide; and the Duke has Leave to come to Verſailles, where he will arrive in a Day or two; and Orders have been diſpatched to General Medavi to endeavour to retire to Naples, with the Forces under his Command. They write from Mantua, That their Duke fearing that Place might be attacked by the Allies, and not thinking himſelf ſafe there, intended to remove to Ravenna.

Hague, November 12. N. S. The Duke of Marlborough, ſince his coming to this Place, has been complimented by a Deputation from the States General, by the Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Quality, upon his ſafe Arrival, and the glorious Succeſſes of the Campaign. The 10th Inſtant the Deputies of the States came to confer with my Lord Duke, and did the like again this Day, about ſuch Publick Affairs as are neceſſary to be ſettled before his Grace's Departure for England. Mr. Stanhope, Her Majeſty of Great Britain's late Envoy to the States, embarked lately at the Brill, and ſailed from thence two Days ago in order to paſs over into England. Our Letters from the North confirm the Defeat of the Swediſh Forces under General Mardeveldt by the King of Poland's Army; and add, that that General, who was taken Priſoner, is ſince dead of his Wounds. They write from Italy, That the Town of Picighittone ſurrendred to the Duke of Savoy upon Articles the 26th paſt, which is confirmed by the Advices from France, which alſo give an Account, That the Duke of Orleans's Deſign of returning into Piedmont was laid aſide; and that he was daily expected at Verſailles.

Hague, Nov. 16. N. S. The Duke of Marlborough has not yet fixed the Time of his Departure for England; however the Yachts and Men of War that are to attend his Grace in his Paſſage are ordered to be in a Readineſs. The Dutch Regiment of Guards being to Winter in this Place, arrived here two Days ago; and the reſt of our Forces are all marched to the Winter Quarters aſſigned them. A Party of the Gariſon of Huy made an Excurſion lately towards Namur, and burnt a great Magazine of Hay which the Enemy had laid up near that Place. The States of Holland and Weſtfriſeland are to meet again to morrow, to finiſh the Matters before them. Mr. Stepney, Her Majeſty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, is ſhortly to have his Publick Audience of the States General. Vice-Admiral Waſſenaer is lately arrived in the Texel from the Streights, with ſeveral Dutch Men of War under his Command. The Packet-Boat which came from England with the Letters of the 25th paſt, O. S. was in her Paſſage hither taken by a Privateer belonging to Dunkirk, the Mail having firſt been thrown over board; but being afterwards ſeparated from the Privateer by bad Weather, the Engliſh Seamen who were left in her fell upon 11 Men the Privateer had put on board, and getting the better of them, brought the Ship into the Texel. Letters from Germany ſay, Prince Lewis of Baden lay ſo ill at Raſtat, that his Recovery was deſpaired of.

The homeward-bound Barbadoes Fleet is arrived in the Downes: And laſt Night came in there Her Majeſty's Ship the Tiger, and under her Convoy the Abraham, Nathaniel, and the George, and another Ship belonging to Margate, from Lisbon, having all been ſeparated in bad Weather about ſix Days ago from Her Majeſty's Ships the Pembroke and Mary Galley, with above 20 Sail of other Merchantmen, homeward-bound from Portugal.

London, Nov. 3. Mr. Stanhope, Her Majeſty's late Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General, returned hither this Day from Holland, being come over on board the Cleveland Yacht.
